

CORPUS CHRISTI SCHOOL

WEEKLY UPDATE

JANUARY 6, 2011

Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow!

Memory Books!

Memory Books can be ordered until January 15. Each memory book costs $17.00. The cover has already been printed and is ready to be filled memories! Francesca Papillo designed this year's cover.

Dining out Night - February 17

California Pizza Kitchen, located at the Christiana Mall, is the site of February's dining out night. Please be sure to join us for an evening of yummy camaraderie!

Scholarships

Congratulations are extended to Madeline Smith - Ursuline, Andrew Constantine, James Hoban, and Owen Porth - Salesianum - who received scholarships for the coming school year (2011-2012)!

The Big Bad

Tryouts for roles in The Big Bad, this year's play, will begin on Monday, January 10. The Big Bad is a story about the big bad wolf of fairy tale fame being slapped with a lawsuit by the characters he has wronged. In a case of art imitating life, a number of characters including the three little pigs and Little Red Riding Hood, are suing the wolf for damages for doing them wrong!

Visions for the Future

There are still financial aid packets available to any family currently attending Corpus Christi School. You may contact the school office for a packet.

Basketball

Basketball season is under way. Our students in grades 3-8 are playing on either St. Mary Assumption or Corpus Christi teams! During the recent Corpus Christi sponsored Holiday tournament, the CCS 4th grade girls' team won the 2nd place trophy, and the CCS JV boys took 2nd place in their division.

Geography Bee

The National Geographic geography bee will be held on January 19 at 1:10 in the lower level. Students in grades 4-8 will be competing to represent Corpus Christi at the state level. All are welcome to attend.

Charter Challenge

Students in grades 5-8 have signed up to participate in the Charter Challenge on February 5 at Charter High School. Students will be flexing their intellectual muscles as they answer questions that range from math to science to mythology to geography!

Re-registration

You may pick up a re-registration packet from the school office, or by contacting the Catholic Schools Office at 571-5133. Registration fee is $50.00/child until February 11.

All Saints Meeting

For anyone who would like to ask questions or seek clarification regarding All Saints there will be four meetings next week. Two at Corpus Christi on January 10 (1:00 and 7:00 P.M.); two at St. Mary Assumption on January 11 (1:00 and 7:00 P.M).

Re-construction of Doorway Lintel

This week we've been repairing the lintel and its supports above the basement doorway into the Middle School building. Over the year's it has been exposed to the weather, rusted, and weakened. It will be completely repaired by early next week.

Annual Giving Masses

It's that time of year, again! The Annual Giving Mass weekend will be on January 29/30 this year. Traditionally, the annual giving campaign is kicked off on the Sunday of Catholic Schools' Week. All students are encouraged to attend their regular Masses in full uniform to show their school spirit!

Reminder

Parents who are scheduled to work in the school store should report for duty by 7:45 A.M.

Have a wonderful weekend,

Kathleen Connor

P.S. Don't forget, in the event that school is cancelled due to bad weather, you can expect a SchoolReach phone call by about 6:00 A.M. of the cancelled day. You can also access the www.cdw.org website and select the School Related Closings box to get current school closing information after 5:30 A.M.
