

CORPUS CHRISTI SCHOOL

WEEKLY UPDATE

MARCH 4, 2011

As of today, March 2, All Saints enrollment is 499 students!

Grocery bags are needed for the lunchroom!

Walkathon dress down day scheduled for March 16 is cancelled. Instead, class photos will be taken on that date. You may use April 1 or April 15 instead of March 16.

Alumni News

Congratulations to the following alumnae for achieving honor roll status at Padua and Ursuline:

Padua: Hannah Anderson, Anna Fiscella - 1st honors; Jennifer Fiscella, Sarah Heckroth, Natalie Hines, Gina Marchesiello, Grianna Rafferty, Kelly Reynolds, Elizabeth Thurrell - 2nd honors; Hannah Anderson, Rachel Liskiewicz - principal's award.

Ursuline: Rocio Posada - 1st honors.

Shannon Foreman, whose family recently moved to Charlotte, North Carolina, received mention in SPORTS ILLUSTRATED for her swimming prowess. "Shannon, a junior at Ardrey Kell High, led the Knights to their first Southwestern 4A title, winning the 50- and 100-yard freestyles. With her team trailing by nine points going into the final event, Shannon anchored the 4 x 100 free relay, finishing first by .09 of a second to clinch a 568-565 victory and snap rival Providence High's 19-year conference title winning streak."

March Madness

The annual March Madness basketball tournament has begun. The schedules for your favorite teams can be found in the lobby of the gym!

Just5Days is a work camp created for middle school students. This gives young adolescents the opportunity to be involved in meaningful service while they explore what Catholic social teaching is and what it means for their lives. The program will be offered in the Wilmington area June 27th through July 1st. For more information visit:

CORPUS CHRISTI SCHOOL

Summer Camp

The revised summer camp flyer is attached to this Email. Pre-kindergarten was omitted from the first flyer!

Padua, 7th Grade Practice Test

Padua will be hosting a 7th Grade Practice Test on March 12, 2011. The response has been fabulous, so they have ordered more tests and extended the registration deadline to Tuesday, March 8th. The form can be downloaded from the Padua website (under the Admission tab). from: Shana Maguire, Director of Admissions.

I will be away on a 3-day retreat; therefore, am sending this update early.

Enjoy the rest of the week!
